I would like to take the opportunity to thank all of the people who helped me in the making of this record. My arranger, Jimmy Dale, Guido Basso, who played the beautiful solo on "Mudluscious", Eugene Amaro and Moe Koffman, who will be surprised to learn about the funky baritone/tenor duet that they played together on "Strawberry Sunshine", all of the musicians who made recording these tracks a real pleasure, the guys in my regular road band, the Eastern people and most important of all, the fans and friends who helped to keep me afloat during the hard times. People like Bill, Bob, Danny, David, Jana, Jaws, Joe, Lawless Lawlis, Lee, Len, Mary, Michael, Peter, Randy, Richard, Rick, Robin, Shelley and Squeaky Cheeks.

And all of you other guys who realize that just because there isn't room for all of your names, that I haven't forgotten you. That I love you and appreciate all that I owe you and your support. As a matter of fact, I owe roses to so many good people that I can almost forget the one or two who deserve to have their legs broken or their tennis elbows smashed. And I have come to be aware that it is true that you just can't make it by yourself. You just better believe it, Jim. As anybody can tell you who has tried it, no good can come of trying it the solo way. So, thanks....and lots of love.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank all of the people who helped me in the making of this record. My arranger, Jimmy Dale, Guido Basso, who played the beautiful solo on "Mudluscious", Eugene Amaro and Moe Koffman, who will be surprised to learn about the funky baritone/tenor duet that they played together on "Strawberry Sunshine", all of the musicians who made recording these tracks a real pleasure, the guys in my regular road band, the Eastern people and most important of all, the fans and friends who helped to keep me afloat during the hard times. People like Bill, Bob, Danny, David, Jana, Jaws, Joe, Lawless Lawlis, Lee, Len, Mary, Michael, Peter, Randy, Richard, Rick, Robin, Shelley and Squeaky Cheeks.

And all of you other guys who realize that just because there isn't room for all of your names, that I haven't forgotten you. That I love you and appreciate all that I owe you and your support. As a matter of fact, I owe roses to so many good people that I can almost forget the one or two who deserve to have their legs broken or their tennis elbows smashed. And I have come to be aware that it is true that you just can't make it by yourself. You just better believe it, Jim. As anybody can tell you who has tried it, no good can come of trying it the solo way. So, thanks....and lots of love.
